Scrum Specific Principles

© PasbanConsulting.co.uk

1 Scrum's Empirical Process Control Principle

- Transparency
- Inspection
- Adaptation

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

2 Self-organization principle

Considerably superior value when self-organized

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

2 Self-organization principle

- Better team buy-in
- Shared ownership of the project
- And an inventive and imaginative environment

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

3 The principle of Collaboration

- Respect each person's role
- Listen to their points of view

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

3 The principle of Collaboration

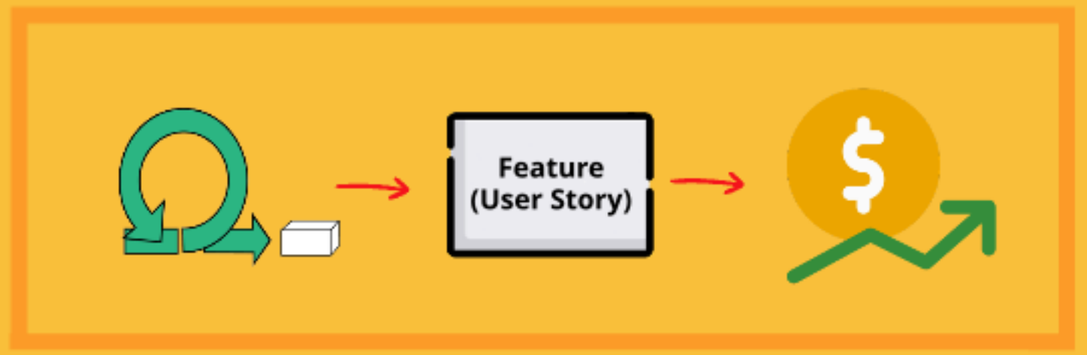
How can I work with my peer for the good of the product?

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

4 Value Based Prioritization

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

4 Value Based Prioritization



80/20 Principle

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

5 Time-boxing

Help manage product

Project planning

Implementation

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

5 Time-boxing

Time-boxed components in Scrum

- Sprint Review and Restrospective Meetings
- Daily scrum meetings
- Sprint Planning Meetings
- Sprints

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

Scrum product owner

© PashunConsulting.co.uk

In Summary

1- Scrum’s Empirical Process Control Principle

2- Self-organization Principle

3- The principle of Collaboration

4- Value Based Prioritization

5- Time-boxing