

Tip 25 - Avoid role confusion

Scrum Master

Scrum Team

Mixture of roles

Confusion
of roles

- There is going to be mistrust between you and lots of conflicts

- S/he leaves you no choice, especially if you are a seasoned product owner who knows the role of a scrum master well

The best way to avoid this is to:

- Speak to the management to ensure that the company gets an effective and experienced scrum master

In Summary

- Avoid role confusion
